

PHOTOGRAPHY COMPETITION 2020

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. The Dog Trouble Foundation's 2020 Photography Competition is open to amateur photographers only.
2. These rules are governed by the laws of England and Wales. This Competition is administered by the Dog Trouble Foundation.
3. Please take your photos responsibly with utmost concern for the health and welfare of the dog. Any photographs that raise concerns regarding the welfare of the animals will be rejected and may be reported to the relevant authorities.
4. Entrants may submit up to 3 digital photos per category. For EACH entry a donation of £5 is suggested, which should be submitted using the payment form available as part of the online submission process.
5. Photographs submitted in digital form should ideally be no larger than 5mb in file-size, with a recommended maximum of 20mb per email (if you have to submit your photo/s via email), so that they don't get blocked by mail filters.
6. Photos should be uploaded using the website Entry Form or they can be sent to foundation@dogtrouble.co.uk. If you email photos to us separately please make sure to include your name, email and 'phone number, and the dog's name, the category and a brief description. Unfortunately, we cannot accept postal entries.
7. The closing date for entries is Saturday 20 December 2020 at 5pm. Any entries received after this date will not be considered.
8. The organisers accept no responsibility for entries lost, damaged or delayed when sent by email. Unsuccessful entrants will not be contacted and no feedback will be provided on any photographic entry.
9. The judges' decision on winners is at their discretion and will be final, and no correspondence can be entered into.
10. Winners will be announced on the Dog Trouble Foundation Facebook page and on the Foundation website.
11. All entries must be original work and must not have been previously published or entered into other photographic Competitions. Entries must not infringe the rights of any other party.

12. Contact details will need to be provided, including the name, email address and 'phone number of the person submitting the entry. Personal details will only be used for the purpose of administering the Competition and the name used to credit the entrant.
13. Note that entries will be displayed on the Dog Trouble Foundation website and in some cases (e.g. winning entries) may be displayed on Facebook. Do not include any individuals, especially children, in your photos if you do not want them to be available for the general public to view. By submitting your photos to the Competition, you give permission for your child's photo to be used:
 - I. At Dog Trouble Behaviour, Training & Wellness Centre for display purposes;
 - II. Within other printed material;
 - III. On the Dog Trouble Foundation's website;
 - IV. On the Dog Trouble Foundation and Dog Trouble Limited's social media pages.
14. The entrant must be the sole owner of copyright in all photos entered.
15. Copyright in all images submitted for this Competition remains with the respective entrants. The Dog Trouble Foundation may feature any or all of the submitted images in any of their publications, social media, website or in any promotional material, which may include display materials. All images used will be credited to the photographer.
16. The data you provide for this Competition will not be used for any other promotional or marketing purposes other than outlined above. All of Dog Trouble Foundation activities operate in a GDPR environment.
17. Images may be digitally enhanced. The judges reserve the right to exclude any image they believe may have been excessively treated so as to alter its authenticity.
18. By entering, entrants will be deemed to have agreed to be bound by these rules and we reserve the right to exclude any entry from the Competition at any time and in its absolute discretion if we have reason to believe that an entrant has breached these rules, acted fraudulently in any way, or brings us into disrepute.
19. We reserve the right to cancel this Competition or alter any of the rules at any stage, if deemed necessary in its opinion, and if circumstances arise outside of its contr
